It is a pleasure to invite you to submit your research paper for the publication of the first issue of 2020.

The African Journal of Non-Profit Higher Education (ISSN: 2706-669X) publishes rigorous peer-reviewed open access articles with a focus on cross- and interdisciplinary research relating to the not-for-profit sector of African higher education in particular, and of higher education in general. Its mission is to strengthen non-profit higher education as a distinctive scholarly field in higher education studies. Therein the journal in particular, but not exclusively, wants to explore the intersecting themes of non-profit higher education, social justice and societal transformation. The journal will aim to advance an African voice in global scholarly discourses on educational theory and practice unique to the sector.

The theme of the first volume is: Non-profit Higher Education and Social Good.

Topics of interest

- Non-profit education and scholarship
- Higher Education
- Social justice pedagogies
- The reality of a new epoch following the Covid-19 pandemic
- Massification of Higher Education
- Expansion of Higher Education
- Public Finance and Private Education
